

Kashmir Solidarity Day at CEWRE UET Lahore

The Centre of Excellence in Water Resource Engineering, UET Lahore has observed the Kashmir Solidarity Day on August 05, 2019 (Monday), with a pledge to continue extending all possible support to the people of Indian-held Kashmir, who have been struggling for their legitimate right of self-determination more than seven decades.

The day has been observed all over Pakistan at a time when Indian atrocities in held Kashmir and LOC have reached a new level of oppression and human rights violations, to suppress the indigenous freedom movement against the subjugating forces.

The faculty members, staff and students of the Center gathered in seminar hall of the CEWRE to show solidarity with oppressed Kashmiri brethren. After Tilawat-e-Quran and National Anthem, one-minute silence was observed at 10.00 am to pay homage to the martyrs of the liberation struggle of occupied Kashmir. Later Prof. Dr. Noor M Khan, Director CEWRE highlighted the significance of Kashmir for Muslims and Pakistanis, and renewed the resolve that Pakistanis will stand shoulder to shoulder with Kashmiris in their struggle to get their democratic right of self determination. On same day in afternoon, CEWRE faculty, staff and students also participated in a campus-wide walk at main campus of UET, under the leadership of worthy Vice Chancellor, Prof. Dr. Mansoor Sarwar, to express the feelings for Kashmir and to protest against Indian atrocities.

